WHO WE ARE

The Historic South Downtown Community Preservation & Development Authority (HSD) is a state-created agency responsible for preserving, restoring, and promoting the health, safety, and cultural identity of Seattle's Pioneer Square and Chinatown-International District (C-ID) neighborhoods. We help fund the organizations and agencies that directly serve Pioneer Square and the C-ID.

These two historic neighborhoods have the right to determine their own future. Your voice – the voice of your community – is woven into who we are:

- Board elected from the C-ID and Pioneer Square neighborhoods, representing residents, businesses, nonprofits, arts, culture, planning professionals and government;
- Monthly board meetings open to the public on the 4th Tuesday of every month at 5 pm.

Send us your ideas for a stronger community, cultural preservation and a vibrant future! Visit

We provide new resources for the communities we serve and help mitigate the impact of large and ongoing public development projects.

In the past, HSD has invested in projects that you see in your neighborhood every day, including:

- Alley activation in Pioneer Square and C-ID
- Danny Woo International Children's Park
- Signage and marketing information to promote business in both neighborhoods
